The map displays the City of Seattle with various planning-related areas highlighted. The Manufacturing & Industrial Center (MIC) is shown in pink, covering areas like the Industrial Center and Greater Duwamish. Urban Center/Urban Villages are shown in orange, including areas like Downtown, Uptown, and Rainier Beach. Hub/Residential Urban Villages are shown in yellow, such as Ballard, Fremont, and West Seattle Junction. The map also shows neighborhood planning area boundaries in blue and portions of planning areas not within a MIC or Urban Center/Urban Village in light purple. Major water bodies like Puget Sound, Elliott Bay, Green Lake, and Lake Union are labeled. A scale bar indicates distances up to 2 miles, and a north arrow is provided.
